

Russian Gay Leader to Speak in Chicago!

at the

9th Annual Matthew Shepard* March for LGBT Freedom

8 PM, Saturday, October 6, 2007
Corner of Halsted & Roscoe Streets, Chicago

Nikolai Alexeyev has courageously led the organizing of Russian LGBT people, braving government repression, physical assaults by fascists, and the vicious opposition of all major religious denominations in Moscow.

Chicago's Gay Liberation Network is proud to sponsor Alexeyev's first-ever visit to the United States.

Nikolai Alexeyev confronting police repression during Moscow Pride.

* The Matthew Shepard March is named for the gay Wyoming student who was lynched by anti-gay bigots in 1998.

In addition to the Saturday, Oct. 6th
Matthew Shepard March, Nikolai Alexeyev will be the featured guest at a 7 PM to 9 PM, Wednesday, Oct 3rd Solidarity Reception

Gerber-Hart Library, 1127 W. Granville Street, Chicago
Suggested donation is $25 (more if you can). All proceeds will benefit the Organizational Committee of Moscow Pride.

Convened by the Gay Liberation Network (www.GayLiberation.net)

For info call 773.209.1187 or email LGBTliberation@aol.com

Cosponsored by (list in formation): 8th Day Center for Justice; Berwyn United Neighborhood Gay And Lesbian Organization (BUNGALO); Chicago Democratic Socialists of America; Chicago National Organization For Women; Chicagoland Pride at Work; Columbia College GLBT Office; Early to Bed; Freedom Road Socialist Organization; National Lawyer's Guild Chicago; Nicaragua Solidarity Network; Office of GLBTQA Student Services, DePaul University; Peace Pledge; Sangat (South Asian LGBT organization); Thousand Waves Foundation; Windy City Media Group