

10th annual Matthew Shepard March for LGBT Freedom

Sept. 27, 2008

years ago anti-gay bigots lynched 21-year-old Matthew Shepard, strung him up on a barbed wire fence and left him to die. Shepard's murder put the issue of anti-LGBT violence – and the hate that causes it – on the national agenda for the first time in a generation.

Matthew Shepard was one of many

victims of anti-LGBT hate

across the nation before and since 1998.

Help win Lesbian, Gay, Bi and Trans rights today.

10th annual Matthew Shepard March for LGBT Freedom

8 PM – Saturday
September 27, 2008

Rally @ corner of Halsted & Roscoe, Chicago, followed by a march through the community.
